It is intended for those (middle school through adults) who are interested in becoming members at NCC, and it is also for those who have already indicated a desire to join NCC but have not yet participated in this class.

"The Connecting Point" is our new members' orientation class, is a requirement for membership at NCC, and it will be taught by our pastor right after the morning worship service on November 20, 2022. Lunch will be served (no cost), and free child-care will be provided as well.

Reservations are not essential, but are greatly appreciated. So please speak to our pastor or email him at bill_gabc@hotmail.com or call his cell phone (229) 251-6191 to R.S.V.P. for this class which is scheduled to begin around 12:30 p.m. (right after the luncheon).

Names of God: Jehovah Rapha

As we continue our abbreviated studies of the Old Testament names of God, I trust that you are gaining a little more insight on the attributes of God. As we build our earthly relationships, we do so by learning more about those whom we are the fondest of. We take note of their nature and their very own, unique characteristics. We should be doing that ten-fold as we endeavor to build our relationship with God Almighty. This week we will look at God's name, Jehovah Rapha (raw-aw').

Use in the Bible: In the Old Testament Jehovah-Rapha (The Lord that Heals) is used in Exodus 15:26.

Variant spellings: Jehovah-Rophe; Jehovah Rophecha; Jehovah Raphah

We have already discovered that Jehovah is translated as "Lord." The chief meaning of Jehovah is derived from the Hebrew word Havah meaning "to be" or "to exist." It also suggests "to become" or specifically "to become known." This describes a God who is continually revealing Himself to us. That was a long, difficult way of describing the purpose of this series. That purpose is to demonstrate how God reveals Himself to use throughout the Old Testament.

Rapha (râpâ') means "to restore," "to heal," or "to make healthful" in Hebrew. When the two words are combined, Jehovah Rapha, it can be translated as "Jehovah Who Heals" or "The Lord Who Heals." Jehovah is The Great Physician who heals the physical and emotional needs of His people in His own time and His own manner.

Stay Tuned!

Blessings, David C. Adams, Worship Leader

Giving is an Act of Worship

Northway Community Church believes giving to your local church should be a planned and willful act of worship. Normally, we do not take up an offering as part of our worship services. Instead, we have an offering box located on the desk near the front door. Gifts to Northway (a non-profit corporation) qualify as tax deductible gifts. If you would like credit for your gift in your name and receive a contribution statement at year end, simply fill out and use our contribution envelopes as a means of depositing your gift into our offering box. Gifts to Northway are an act of worship between you and the Lord. As such, only a few from our accounting department know the giving records of our families. We do not want knowledge of contributions to impact or sway our staff's effectiveness in ministering to the body.
